RESIGNS FROM PASTORATE AFTER 41 YEARS.

Ilis Letter of Resignation Read at Congregational Meeting Last Night Feels He Ought to Outt Before Decay of His Powers Sets In. He Says in It.

The pastorship of the Rev. Dr. Robert Stuart MacArthur, which had been continuous over the Calvary Baptist Church of this city for a few months more than but after Weiss insisted he was telling the forty-one years, came to an end last night when his congregation, assembled in the church chapel on East Fifty-seventh street, accepted without a dissenting vote his letter of resignation.

The vote was a silent one and it was not taken until many of the older members of the congregation had arisen and spoken in voices that scarcely masked the strain of emotion at the loss which their pastor's decision to retire had imposed upon Calvary Church. The resolutions embodying the acceptance of Dr. MacArthur's resignation also made it the sense of the congregation that he should be pressed to accept the office of pastor emeritus of the church. By agreement between Dr. MacArthur and the board of deacons of the church his pastorship was made to cease with the acceptance of his letter of

Though Dr. MacArthur's contemplated step was no surprise to the majority of the congregation there were few who knew that more than a year ago their pastor had prepared the letter which was read to them last night. A second letter from him, dated within the past week, told the church members that he had only withheld the presentation of his resignation a year ago because of the urgent appeals of influential members. The retiring clergyman gave as his only reason for retiring his conviction that it was best for him to relinquish his post while he was still in the prime of his mental faculties. Too many pastors, he said, made the mistake of lingering in their posts, made honorable by youthful efforts, long after they had passed the period of their greatest usefulness. chapel was well filled with members of Calvary Church when the Rev. Donald | MacIntyre, assistant pastor. opened the prayer and song service. Special letters to every member of the congregation urging their attendance upon a meeting whose purpose should be to consider "an important communication from the pastor" had brought out the unusually large number. No mention of the important business of the meeting was made until after the praise service and routine business of the congregation had been finished. Then Mr. MacIntyre said that he had to read a communication from Dr. MacArthur.

There was a good reason why the pastor himself was not present on this occasion. he said. Dr. MacArthur could not trust himself to deliver in person the message he had for his people. Then Mr. Mac-Intyre read the letter, which was dated September 9, 1910.

On March 9, 1970, you called me to be your pastor while I was still a student at the Rochester Seminary," the letter began. "On Sunday, May 15 of that year, the first Sunday after my graduation, I assumed my active duties as paster of Calvary. On Sunday, May 15, 1910, the congregation celebrated the fortieth year of my pastorate. Reports of the church showed that in those forty years 5,000 persons had been received into the fellowship of the church; that this beautiful edifice had been erected and paid for at the expense of $525,000; that 2,300 members were on our church roll and that more than $2,000,000 had been laid on the altar of charity and missions. After stating that his purpose to present his resignation immediately after the celebration of the fortieth year of his pastorate had been altered by the earnest plea of many in his congregation, Dr. MacArthur's letter continued:

"With full faith that God will bless this church in the future as the has in the past."

with full faith that God will bless this church in the future as He has in the past I now offer my resignation. The pain of severing the pastoral tie has been great and I faintly appreciate the sorrow of Jesus at Gethsemane. The best of my brain, the best of my heart, the best of my soul has gone into this structure, both material and spiritual. Next to my love for my Lord and my family is, and will ever be, my love for Calvary.

"I close my pastorship without an un-will ever be, my love for Calvary.

"I close my pastorship without an unkind thought for a human being and with affection for every memory of the years that have gone. I resign not because of the consciousness of physical disability, nor the failing of metal power, nor lack of spiritual faith, nor because of any dissension in my flock. Observation shows that many pastors make the mistake of continuing even to the end of their physical ability and to the approach of senility."

Dr. MacArthur closed his letter with the expression of his sincere hope that no long period would intervene between the acceptance of his resignation and the selection of a new pastor to fill the pulpit of Cavairy. He urged upon the deacons that they should strive to act with celerity in the selection of a new man and not give themselves to the weary task of reviewing preacher after preacher called to show himself for trial in the Calvary pulpit. "It would well migh break my heart," the pastor said, "if a long pastorless period should intervene after my resignation."

the second letter written by Dr. MacArthur he mentioned the fact of his election as president of the World Alliance of the Baptist Church, saying that this gave him the opportunity to achieve the crowning work of his career. Among other plans that he had was to go to St. Petersburg shortly, he added, and in his new capacity as head of the whole Baptist. Church to intercede with Czar Nicholas for a greater measure of religious freedom for the coreligionists in Russia.

After the resolutions accepting Dr. After the resolutions accepting Dr.
MacArthur's resignation had been presented by J. B. Daughtry and passed by the congregation the Rev. Mr. MacIntyre announced that Dr. MacArthur would preach at both morning and would preach at both morning and evening services next Sunday.

GIRL HAD "CERTIFIED" CHECK. Swindled New Orleans Bank Out of $150

With Latest Popular Scheme. NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 22.- A young woman who posed as the daughter of H. C. Pullman, a director of a Pittsburg bank, and as the niece of the late George M. Pullman, has swindled the Whitney Central National Bank by means of a forged certified check.

Detectives are now seeking her and her confederates, as it is believed she was the agent of an organized gang. The girl, who seemed only 20, scraped an acquaintance with three well known young men in the Italian Gardens of the St. Charles Hotel, where she was occupying the best room in the house, and later got one of them to vouch for her at the Whitney Central, the second largest bank of New Central, the second largest bank of New Orleans.

She deposited $50 in currency and a certified check for $100. The stamp of a Pittsburg bank appeared on the check. This happened Monday. On Tuesday she drew the entire $150. The next day she deposited another certified check for $75 and seon afterward tried to draw that amount in money. The paying teller became suspicious and asked the girl to wait. That was the last seen of her. The bank's loss is only $150. It is said to be the second time the Whitney Central Bank ever has been swindled.

Teceived the nomination for assessor.

Named for the Assembly.

Lockfort, Sept. 22.—The Republicans of the Niagara Falls Assembly district to-day nominated Carl S. Brong of Lockfort, Sept. 25.—The Republicans of the Niagara Falls Assembly district to-day nominated Carl S. Brong of Lockfort, Sept. 22.—The Republicans of the Niagara Falls Assembly district to-day nominated Carl S. Brong of Lockfort, Sept. 22.—The Republicans of the Niagara Falls Assembly district to-day nominated Carl S. Brong of Lockfort, Sept. 25.—The Republicans of the Niagara Falls Assembly district to-day nominated Carl S. Brong of Lockfort, Sept. 25.—The Republicans of the Niagara Falls Assembly district to-day nominated Carl S. Brong of Lockfort, Sept. 25.—The Republicans of the Niagara Falls Assembly district to-day nominated Carl S. Brong of Sept. 25.—The Republicans of the Niagara Falls Assembly district to-day nominated Carl S. Brong of Sept. 25.—The Republicans of the Niagara Falls Assembly district to-day nominated Carl S. Brong of Sept. 25.—The Republicans of the Niagara Falls Assembly district to-day nominated Carl S. Brong of Sept. 25.—The Republicans of the Niagara Falls Assembly.

B. F. Gould. Brong of 33 votes and James C. Watts 30. Watts was the choice of the leaders.

Brong is 26 years of age and son of D. E. Brong, First Deputy Attorney-General Sept. 25.—The Republicans of the Niagara Falls Assembly.

BOY DIDN'T DO MURDER. Proved That He Couldn't Have Killed the Man Found in Boxcar.

Isaac Weiss, the sixteen-year-old boy who told the Newark police that he accidentally shot the man whose body was found in an empty freight car in the Waverley yards of the Pennsylvania Railroad, admitted yesterday that he had lied. Weiss said that the policeman who arrested him scared him so badly that he made up a "confession."

The Newark detectives didn't take much stock in young Weiss's story to begin with. the railroad yards and pointed out where of Burns Bros., dealers in coal, to the answer to his wife's charges Marstin Beatty took passengers for rides. Beatty the freight car stood they began to think detective went to 204 East 110th street, where Weiss lives with his father and mother, and learned that the boy had been home on Tuesday night and that he hadn't left home until 8 o bck on Wednesday left home until so ock on Wednesday morning. His story to the Newark police was that he had spent Tuesday night carousing in Newark saloons with the man whose body was found in the freight car, that he and the man had gone to sleep at 11 P. M. on Tuesday in a car in the Pennsylvania freight yards and that he had accidentally shot his companion while trying to take his revolver.

It was ascertained yesterday that the boy could not have been telling the truth. His mother, father and sister, as well as his employer, told the police that Weiss had been on this side of the East River up to Wednesday morning. He was em-had been on this side of the East River up to Wednesday morning. He was employed by a jewelry manufacturing concern at 87 Maiden lane. He got his week's pay on Tuesday evening, went home and gave his mother 33. He slept at home that night and started for work at 7 o'clock on Wednesday morning. He didn't go to work because his employers had discharged him and he didn't strength had discharged him and he didn't return when the Newark detectives put these facts up to him yesterday he admitted that he had been romancing. He said he left home on Wednesday determined to run away and make his fortune. He went over to Jersey and was picked up on the Plank road by Policeman Koschna, who scared him so, he said, that he made up a story on the spur of the moment. He said it wasn't true that he had ever seen he man who was killed in the freight yards. He said he had invented a name, "Dick," for the man and that he had manufactured He said he had invented a name, "Dick," for the man and that he had manufactured all the other details in his confession made

Thursday night. Weiss's admission left the Newark detectives up in the air. They have not been able to find the lame, stout tramp who was seen on Tuesday night with the un-identified man and nobody has been able

BALLOT BOXES OPENED. Court Finds a Way to Get at Baltimore

Primary Frauds. BALTIMORE, Sept. 22.-The Grand Jury, which has been investigating primary election frauds in one precinct, got an order from Judge Duffy to-day to open the ballot box and count the votes of each candidate.

Presentments were promptly drawn and indictments of the judges and the clerks of the election precinct followed. The six officials were arrested this evening and released under $2,000 bail each.
While the Grand Jury was counting the ballots Senttor Gorman, who owes his nomination to Baltimbre city, called into consultation six Democratic lawyers with the view of finding a method whereby the court could consider a petition to with the view of finding a method whereby the court could consider a petition to open all the ballot boxes without previ-ously finding prima facie evidence of fraud in each, the law making no specific fraud in each, the law making no specific provisions for such a contingency as has arisen. A difference of opinion as to the statute led to a postponement of final action until to-morrow morning.

Meanwhile, however, the court found a way and the announcement was made this evening that inasmuch as the Demo-

As it is almost certain that frauds were perpetrated in a number of other pre-cincts where the Republican judges, having no contest of their own, aided the Democratic officials, both parties are affected and the indications are there will be arrests by wholesale.

Writes That Louis Friedel Is Unfit for District Leadership.

Herbert Parsons, former president of ship of the Eighth Assembly district from Louis Friedel, he said that Mr. Friedel was "wholly unfit" for the party leadership of the district and "a disgrace to the Commenting last night on this letter Mr. Friedel said: Mr. Friedel said:

"I don't know what Parsons means.
Perhaps he is referring to the fact that I asked for places for my followers. Of course I did that, but I don't understand why Mr. Parsons has turned on me particularly, as at one time he suggested that I should take a nomination for Congress.

Mr. Parsons have that I have personally Mr. Parsons knows that I have personally managed the Republican campaigns in our district since 1893 and he knows of the victories I have helped to win for the Republican party in that district."

CAN'T FIND 8,500 VOTERS. Sample Primary Ballots Mailed to Then in New Jersey Come Back. City Clerk Michael I. Fagan of Jersey City said yesterday that 3,500 envelopes containing sample primary ballots mailed by election boards to supposed voters whose names appear on the registry lists have been returned to him from the Jersey City post office as "undelivered." The envelopes had been marked "no found" or "removed" by letter carriers.

In Newark 5,000 envelopes were returned.
In a speech at St. Patrick's Hall in Jersey City on Thursday night Gov.
Wilson of New Jersey said:
"When you get the full figures of the returned ballots in New Jersey then you will know something of what the intention of the Geran bill was namely that real of the Geran bill was, namely that real men should vote, that they should vote where they lived, and that their votes and only their votes should be counted."

MAYOR FISKE RENOMINATED. Named for Sixth Time by Mount Jernon Democrats.

MOUNT VERNON, N. Y., Sept. 22 .- The Democrats of Mount Vernon met in convention at Pabst Assembly Hall to-night and nominated a full city ticket.

Mayor Edwin W. Fiske, who has been the chief executive of Mount Vernon for five terms, was renominated. George C. Appell was nominated for City Judge, Supervisor John H. Cordes for Comptroller, William D. Grant for City Treasurer and Louis N. Smith for Receiver of Taxes Nicholas Erhbar, who is chief of the Mount Vernon fire department, received the nomination for assessor. Democrats of Mount Vernon met in con-

COAL YARD STRIKERS IN TAXI ASSAULT HOSTLERS.

Five Men in Cab Give Battle to Forty and Stampede Cavaleade of Equines in Tenth Avenue-Victims of Assault Abandon the Frightened Animals.

Fifty husky truck horses rampaged truth and after he had gone with them to the horses from the Jersey City yards the wife naming two women. In his the events of to-day. Both Atwood and New York yard of the company, where Then information came from the New York police that upset Weiss's story. A strikers. The horses ran around loose detective went to 204 Feet turb strike.

The information came from the New York police that upset Weiss's story. A strikers. The horses ran around loose of the second attack of a party of five time early in the morning before he had mineral advistor, for a cross-country trip to the him early in the morning before he had mineral field and return. Grahametisen. He also claims that she threw coffee in his face. Mrs. Marstin denies in a Wright machine were doing speed for half an hour, until the strike breakers, the charges. their courage restored when twenty s taxicab containing five men dashed around the corner and into the ranks of the horses. The men busied themselves hurling stones, bottles and sticks at the men and animals, while the driver of the taxicab butted all the horses he could with the hood of the machine, causing a panic among the quadrupeds. The forty strike breakers in a body dropped the halters they were holding and ran for shelter. The horses then scattered in different directions.

BURGLAR TELLS ON HIMSELF.

He Wanted Man Who Was Kind to Him to Get Credit of Obtaining Confession.

SOUTH ORANGE, N. J., Sept. 22.—After the county detectives had failed in their directions to get a confession from a burglar locked up here since Monday, when he halters they were holding and ran for shelter. The horses then scattered in different directions.

One of the strike breakers was felled by cause the marrhal had been kind to him. A few days ago it was remarked that it.

One of the strike breakers was felled by doubled on their tracks, run again through panic, and disappeared down Eighteenth street. Dr. Howard of New York Hosstreet. Dr. Howard of New York Hospital patched up the eye of the injured man, Peter Glatski of Mills Hotel No. 1, and Glatski was glad to leave the parade. It took the forty men twenty minutes to decide that they were safe and then another twenty to get all the horses together. At length, assured that the battle was all over they continued north.

gether. At length, assured that the battle was all over, they continued north.

They had hasdly got to Thirty-first street when the same taxicab bore down on them again, this time from the north. It is described as with a white body and glass sides and the number the police got is 9906. Through the herd of horses it sped, only slowing slightly to sideswipe some big dray horse off its pins. The men within had armed themselves with another large supply of bottles, sticks and stones. If they didn't aim for a horse they crashed a stick on the pate of some one who would rather be eisewhere. Ten of the forty were hit before all the strike breakers had scuttled away.

scuttled away.

The first intimation the police got tha The first intimation the police got that there was a second fray in progress was when most of the forty, breathless, stuck in the door of the Thirty-seventh street police station in an effort to reach the lieutenant's desk inside first. When Lieut. Sweeney heard the story he sent the story of the reserves hack with them to Lieut. Sweeney heard the story he sent twenty of the reserves back with them to Thirty-first street. But the men in the taxicab had disappeared and the horses were scattered from Twenty-fifth street to Thirty-fifth and east and west from North River to Eighth avenue. With the policemen to guard them the forty managed to get the horses back in a single pack and drive them to the yard. The services of an ambulance surgeon were again needed after the second mèlée. Mark Kenny of Mills Hotel No. 3 having had his head broken and his face badly cut by a thrown bottle.

Physician Says He Was Lured to Deserted

CHICAGO, Sept. 22.-Dr. William H Falker, a prominent physician, to-day shot and killed Emil Dignos, a supposed bandit, formerly a foreign correspondent for a packing company. Dr. Falker says Spring Valley, Stillwater and Millerton. PARSONS IN PRIMARY FIGHT, he was lured to a deserted tumbledown building at 6431 Hamilton avenue by

Although the police found diamonds

Falker's story was that Dignos lured him to the building on the pretence that his uncle was there dying. The physician said that when he reached the place Dignos drew a revolver and forced him to turn over his valuables.

When Dignos ordered him to leave he seized the man about the neck and a struggle ensued

"We both fell to the floor " Dr Falker said. "with Dignos clutching his revolver. I managed to keep his right hand, which held the revolver, pointed toward the ceiling until I succeeded in taking the weapon from him. It was while we were in another clinch on the floor that I dis-charged the revolver. The bullet en-tered his brain and killed him."

in bankruptcy yesterday with liabilities $125,297 and no available assets. Of the liabilities $60,061 grew out of the purchase of the Belleclaire from Albert Keen in 1910, of which $23,000 were notes given to charged with obtaining $63.73 worth of goods on the account of Mrs. John K. Lovell, wife of an employee in the claim department of the New York Central who lives in the Belfort apartments at Hamilton avenue and Post street, Yonkers. The girl was held in $1,000 bail by Magistrate Herrman in Jefferson Market police trate Herrman in Jefferson Market police court for examination on the 20th.

Dorothy Palmer is a daughter of Mrs. Ella G. Palmer, a hairdresser of 69 Hamilton avenue, Yonkers. Judge Joseph Beall of the Yonkers Special Sessions said last night that she was to have appeared before him this morning on a summons obtained by her mother, who had found her intractable.

FIFTY HORSES ON RAMPAGE WANTS DIVORCE TRIAL HERE. Mrs. Almerin Marstin Answers Husband's Petition Filed in New Jersey.

Marstin of New York, Atlantic City and Philadelphia has filed a petition in the Court of Chancery of New Jersey for a divorce from his wife, Cecilia Woodburn Marstin of New York. Mrs. Marstin has filed an answer to her husband's suit here, averring that her suit for divorce now pending in the New York Supreme around without guiding hands yesterday Court was started first and that the New afternoon when twoscore strike breakers York court has jurisdiction in the matter. aerodrome this afternoon. Many aviators to whom was entrusted the task of driving Statutory offences are cited in both suits, of ten blocks in Tenth avenue.

The teamsters in the Jersey City yards of Burns Bros. have been on strike for two weeks and have made some violent demonstrations. Yesterday afternoon the onstrations. Yesterday afternoon the company decided that the best way to protect their movable property would be to bring horses and trucks to the New York yards at 538 West Thirty-eighth street.

So the fifty horses, with forty strike breakers hired for the purpose, came over the Christopher street ferry yesterday afternoon and proceeded up Tenth avenue. Nothing happened until the cavalcade reached Fifteenth street, when a taxicab containing five men dashed cause the marshal had been kind to him a stone before the men in the taxicab had and he wanted him to "get the credit." He was locked up under the name of would sen Thomas Dorsey, but says he is Thomas Egan and that he is a professional burglar.

Egan said that he has spent more time behind the bars than in front of them since he took up his profession, having served twenty-one years and two months

In the course of his story Egan said he was arrested in 1883 in Brooklyn for burglary and as Charles Stevens spent seven years and a half in Sing Sing. In October, 1897, he went in again for assault in the third degree, did a year and was fined $500. He had not been out four years before he was caught in Yonkers at burglary and got three years and six months. Good behavior won him a year and a half of that sentence, but he was captured again on a job in Jamaica, L. I., and sent back for nine years. He got out last partner in the firm of Strouss, Eisendrath & Co., clothing manufacturers, was sued -day for $25,000 damages by Charles A. Patterson. Patterson alleges that Strouss cloped to Europe with his wife. Mrs. Gertrude S. Patterson, in February, 1909.

WANTS $25,000 FOR WIFE.

Chicago Man Accuses Another of Taking July 14, 1908, leaving a forfeited bail Her Off to Europe.

Patterson was married at Carmel-by-patterson was married at Carmel-by-patterson. Patterson was married at Carmel-by-patterson was married at Carmel-by-patterson was married at Carmel-by-patterson.

designated as postal savings depositories to open for business on October 28: Croton Falls, Brewster, Katonah, Holley, Val-halla, Port Henry, Hermon, Witherbee, Victor, Fisher's Island, Manlius, Sayville, WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.- The will of the late ex-Senator Thomas H. Carter was Herbert Parsons, former president of the Republican county committee, has jumped into the primary fights. In a letter he sent yesterday to David Goldstein, who is seeking to wrest the leadership of the Eighth Assembly district from a gold watch and money belonging to filed here for probate to-day. To Julia not indicate the value of the estate.

Movements of Naval Vessels.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 22. - Arrived -Cruiser Dixie at Newport News, tug Uncas at Norfolk, battleships Michigan and Dela-ware at New York, destroyers Walke and Trippe at Newport, collier Nero at Tomp-kinsville, cruiser North Carolina at Newport, transport Annapolis at Honolulu, destroyers Whipple, Hopkins, Hull, Trux-tun, Paul Jones, Preble, Stewart, Law-rence, Farragut and Rowan at San Pedro. Sailed—Tug Potomac from Norfolk for New York, despatch boat Dolphin from New York for Newport.

Army and Navy Orders. WASHINGTON, Sept. 22.-These army orders

ELMER F. WOODBURY FAILS.

Manager of the Hotel Believlaire Files a Personal Bankruptey Petition.

Elmer F. Woodbury, the manager of the Hotel Bellevlaire, at Broadway and Seventy-seventh street, filed a petition in bankruptey between the service on September 21 is announced. vere issued to-day

These navy orders were issued:

Commander R. E. Coontz, to bureau of navigation, Washington.
Lieutenat Commander C. W. Cole, from Naval Academy to the Cincinnati as executive officer.
Lieut. H. Ellis, from command of the Iris to home and wait orders.
Passed Assistant Paymaster J. H. Gunnell, Norfolk Navy Yard, as assistant to General Storekeeper.

lobos to the New Orleans.

Ensign P. Seymour, from the El Cano to the daughters live at home ew Orleans. Cansign P. Seymour, from the El Cano to the New Orleans.
Ensigns G. H. Emmerson, J. E. Isman, Jr., G. E. Brandt, B. M. Woodson and E. F. Buck, o the Saratoga.
Lieut, R. S. McDonald (junior grade), from the New Orleans to the Viller bos.
Midshipman H. W. K. Chier, from the Saratoga o the Villaiobos.

theut G. C. Pegram, discharged from treat-nent at naval hospital, Yokohama, Japan, to the bany. Ensign H. H. Forgus, to the Samar. Ensign P. J. Peyton, to the Mohlean. Ensign W. J. Peterson, from the Dale Ensign J. D. Moore, to the Monterey. Ensign V. J. Dixon, to the Monadnock

Ensign F. Van Valkenburgn, to the Rainbow. Ensign B. V. McCandlish to the Pompey. Ensign B. R. Ware, Jr., from the Monterey Ensign A. D. Denny, from the New Orleans to

AIRMEN READY FOR

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 22.-Almerin TUNE UP MACHINES FOR BIG CONTEST TO-DAY.

> Wrights Have Licensed the Meet and May send Men to Compete-The Air Line Postal Service to Be a Feature - Army and Navy Aviators Are to Fly.

Everything is in shape for the aviation meet that opens at the Nassau Boulevard were out tuning up their machines for enters a denial and says his wife fre- carried Miss Harriet Quimby, the woman in a Wright machine were doing speed sprints. Dr. Henry Walden made qualifying flights for a pilot's license in order to be able to compete in the nine days race. Capt. Paul W. Beck of the Eighteenth Infantry, U. S. A., arrived yesterday to get his Wright biplene in shape for his mail carrying experiments. A post office tent has been erected in the field and is in charge of a force of clerks authorized in charge of a force of clerks authorized by the chief post office inspector. It was said that "Postman" Beck will be prepared to deliver 20,000 letters in his twice a day trip. Deliveries will be made at Mineola, Garden City, Jamaica and other nearby towns.

All mail carried by the air route will bear two special stamps. One reads har mail carried by the air route will bear two special stamps. One reads "Aero Station No. 1, Garden City P. O., N. Y., " and the other "Aerial Postal Delivery." Undoubtedly many people will take advantage of this opportunity to send souvenir cards to their out of town friends.

It is also expected that there will be

A few days ago it was remarked that it was not known whether the Wrights fifteen months ago, in fact—when it had would send aviators or whether they flown out of the window away from a

CAUGHT AFTER THREE YEARS. Morris Luban, Charged With Forgery,

Captured After Transcontinental Chase. Morris Luban, who lived at 9021/2 Gates avenue, Brooklyn, until the Pinkertons got after him three years ago, was arrested last night at West Third and Mercer streets, Manhattan, where he had gone to meet his wife. The latter still lives at the Gates avenue address and has received mail from her husband from time to time as he zigzagged across the continent and back again. He is charged with grand larceny and forgery.

The arrest was made, by Detective Alien Donnelly of the Pinkerton agency, Egan says he is 62 years old and a printer assisted by Detectives Seleske and Burke. who are attached to the Stagg street precinct and have had the case in their books ever since Luban disappeared on bond for $1,500 behind him. He had been arrested on complaint of the Broadway CHICAGO, Sept. 22.—Emil W. Strauss. a branch of the North Side Bank and arraigned in the Manhattan avenue court.

The charge against Luban is that he got $355 from the bank between July 3 and 8. Gertrude S. Patterson, in February, 1909.
Patterson was married at Carmel-bythe-Sea, Cai., October 1, 1908. Four months later Mrs. Patterson went to Europe with Strouss, the declaration says, taking passage on the steamship Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse at New York. They were in Paris for some time, it is alleged. On May 10 of this year the two visited St.
Louis and were in Chicago together during
Louis and were in Chicago together during

An account was opened on units age of L. J. Lemoni. Luban, the detectives say, deposited a good check for 224.62 on that date as a means of introduction and followed it up with other checks the total value of which amounted to $1,322.45. These checks were good to all appearance, but the bank was soon advised that payment had been stopped on them.
as they had been stolen and falsely indorsed. The Pinkertons were notified

State.

Washington, Sept. 22.—The following post offices in New York were to-day designated as postal savings depositories to open for business on October 28: Croton Falls, Brewster, Katonah, Holley, Valhalla, Port Henry, Hermon, Witherbee, Victor, Fisher's Island, Manlius, Sayville, Spring Valley, Stillwater and Millerton.

The Late Senster Carter's Will.

Washington, Sept. 22.—The following post offices in New York were to-day designated as postal savings depositories to open for business on October 28: Croton Falls, Brewster, Katonah, Holley, Valhalla, Port Henry, Hermon, Witherbee, Victor, Fisher's Island, Manlius, Sayville, Spring Valley, Stillwater and Millerton.

The Late Senster Carter's Will.

Washington, Sept. 22.—The mill of the Manhattan avenue court to-day.

Washington, Sept. 22.—The following post offices in New York were to-day designated as postal savings depositories to open for business on October 28: Croton Falls, Brewster, Katonah, Holley, Valhalla, Port Henry Phipps, another big steel hull, rammed her and tore a big hole in her starboard side. The Phipps was damaged but did not sink. First reports had both to Galveston, continued to Lincoln, Neb., back to Chicago and then on to San Francisco, with half a dozen intermedaite stops Luban was locked up in the Adams street station house pending arraignment.

The Late Senster Carter's Will.

in the Manhattan avenue court to-day. STRIKE ON NEW HOTEL.

Workmen Leave the Vanderbilt in Sym pathy for Marble Men.

A replacing of striking marble workers with new men at the new Vanderbilt Hotel, Fourth avenue and Thirty-third street, resulted yesterday in a sympathetic strike of the other building mechanics at work there. New men have been put to work in place of the strikers on other buildings, but the Vanderbilt Hotel was chosen for the first Vanderbilt Hotel was chosen for the first sympathetic strike, it is said, because it was to be opened in October. It is a twenty-four story structure and is being hurried to completion.

About 500 men in sixteen trades quit work on the new building, including plumbers, tile layers, carpenters, electricians, iron workers, painters, steamfitters, and waterwroofers. The strike fitters and waterproofers. The strike was declared in the afternoon through the Building Trades Council. Strikes of the same kind on other buildings are expected.

Most of the unions in the trades involved Most of the unions in the trades involved have agreements with employers, of which the strike is a violation, and these unions are liable to a lockout by the unions are liable to a lockout by the most are liable to a lockout by the which the strike is a violation of the lockout by the locko associated employers. The emergency committee will take up the matter to-day, and is expected to give a week to the unions to call off the sympathetic strike.

THE REV. T. G. LITTELL DEAD. He Had Been in Ministry for 52 Year and Served First Parish 27.

The Rev. Thomas Gardiner-Littell, D. D.

legit of the bollectaire from Albert Reen in 1910, of which $23,000 were notes given to Mr. Keen and $37,061 wefe, it is said debts of Mr. Keen which Mr. Woodbury assumed as part of the purchase price of the hotel. Mr. Woodbury contracted liabilities of $5,850 for supplies while he kept the hotel and a penalty of $200 for violation of the State game law is included in the liabilities. This is a personal failure. The hotel will keep on under the management of the Belleclaire Hotel Company, which Mr. Woodbury formed when he took over the property from Mr. Keen.

Mr. Woodbury formed when he took over the property from Mr. Keen.

Mr. Woodbury had been a hotel manager for ten years in Pasadena, Cal.

GIRL HELD FOR FRAUD.

Dorothy Paimer Alleged to Have Obtaining Goods in Woman's Name.

Dorothy Paimer Alleged to Have Obtained Goods in Woman's Name.

Dorothy Paimer, the nineteen-year-old daughter of a Yonkers hairdresser, was arrested yesterday in a Fifth avenue store in the property from command of the Iris to home and walt orders.

Passed Assistant Paymaster J. H. Gunnell, Norfolk Navy Yard, as assistant to General Theological Seminary of New York, died at his home, 147 Park avenue, Yonkers, yesterday morning, He was 72 years old and had served in the ministry for fifty-two years.

Dr. Littell was born in Germantown, Pa, and was educated in the schools of Philadelphia and in the General Theological Seminary of New York, died at his home, 147 Park avenue, Yonkers, yesterday morning, He was 72 years old and had served in the ministry for fifty-two years.

Dr. Littell was born in Germantown, Pa, and was educated in the schools of Philadelphia and in the General Theological Seminary of New York City woysers.

Dr. Littell was born in Germantown, Pa, and was educated in the schools of Philadelphia and in the General Theological Seminary of New York City woysers.

Dr. Littell was born in Germantown, Pa, and was educated in the schools of Philadelphia and in the General Theological Seminary of New York City woysers.

Dr. Li

Obituary Notes.

Obituary Notes.

William Henry Hinchman, a former merchant of New York, died at the Newport Hospital yesterday. He was in his eightyniath year and had been ill for some time with diseases incident to old age. Mr. Hinchman, was the stepfather of Major Delamere Skerrett, CA C. now stationed at Fort Greble. His body will be brought to New York and buried in Greenwood Cemetery.

Jacob S. Lederle, for five years superintendent of the A. & G. Kaufman cigar factory at Newburgh, died in that city vesterday at the age of 61 years. Mr. Lederle was born in Eger, Austria, and was graduated from the University of Austria. He is survived by his wife and six children.

MEET BATTERY PARK FOR GAMES.

Mass Meeting Last Night to Emphasize Movement for Downtown Boys. A mass meeting was held at the concerstand in Battery Park last evening for the purpose of securing the park for an athletic field and running track for the use of the boys of the lower wards of the Many well known men who have interested themselves in the scheme were present to address an audience of fully thousand men, women and children of the lower section of the city who were greatly in favor of the project. Among the speakers were State Senator James G. McClelland, Congressman Daniel Riordan and the pastors of the three churches in the downtown section, who are doing their best to help in the movement.

The speakers advanced the argument that the only park in the downtown section used for athletics is Seward Park at Jefferson and Canal streets, and that besides being entirely too far from the Battery Seward Park is already over-

Before the meeting a parade was held of 500 boys, including fifty Boy Scouts, with lighted torches and banners bearing the inscriptions "Our motto, a sound mind in a sound body," and "We demand what other parts of the city have." Alfred R. Conklin offered the boys prizes for the first set of games if they shall be successful in getting the parl as an athletic ground.

A committee of twelve business men was appointed to call on Mayor Gaynor at the earliest possible date.

PARROT IN LITIGATION.

Woman Falls to Establish Claim to Bird Missing Fifteen Months.

"Mamma, mamma, kiss me." verbal osculatory invitation floated out from a bakery at 342 East Eleventh street and tingled the ears of Mrs. Rosie Magnotti of 231 East Tenth street, who was passing by, for it seemed to her that she knew the voice and that it belonged to Putchel, her parrot, long loved and lost a while comfortable home and never returned.

All this Mrs. Magnotti told to Magis trate O'Connor yesterday in Essex Market court, pointing to Antonio Venievo, the keeper of the bakeshop at 342 East Eleventh street, whom she had had served with a summons to appear in court and explain how he came into oossession of Putchel.

possession of Putchel.

Questioned by Assistant District Attorney Medalie as to how she could identify the bird Mrs. Magnotti said that during the four years she had it she had taught it things to say in German and English—to call her husband, an Italian, "Alphonse," for instance. Also under her tutelage it had learned to perch on its stand in front of a mirror and deliver a monologue to its reflection. Furthermore, she had of it a picture taken with herself, and a bunch of tail feathers plucked in memoriam.

"I knew it was Putchel before I went to the shop last Wednesday," Mrs. Magnotti said, "but I was sure of it when I got inside and looked him over."

"Did Putchel recognize you?" she was

"Did Putchel recognize you?" she was asked.
"How could be after being so long time the answer. "Oh, and how away," was the answer. "Oh, and how he has suffered from neglect since he hasn't had me to look after him. Why, he even used to drink coffee out of my mouth." Venievo for his part told the Magistrate that he had bought the parrot from a bird pedler and had paid $15 for it. Magistrate O'Connor dismis and told Mrs. Magnotti to seek redress in

FREIGHTER SUNK IN FOG. Two Steel Trust Lake Ships Collide in St. Clair River. PORT HURON, Mich., Sept. 22.-The were prima facie evidence of conspiracy, and based on this Judge Dully will instruct the Grand Jury that all of the ballot boxes may be opened.

STRANGE STORY OF KILLING

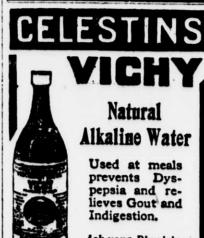

New Postal Savings Depositories in This senger who had gone to the bank to draw state.

State.

Physician Says He was Lured to Deserted Washington. Sent 22—The following. steel steamer Joliet was sunk in the St.

were laden to the rails with iron ore.

No sooner was the Joliet struck than she began to sink. Capt. Clegg remained in command and ordered his men to save themselves. The rapid sinking of the vessel made the attempt to loosen the lifeboat inadvisable, so they leaped into the water. The commander of the Phipps ordered his men to man the life boats and rescue the crew of the Joliet, which they accomplished without the loss of a man. Both boats are Steel Corporation vessels operated by the Pittsburg Steamship sels operated by the Pittsburg Steamship

Ask your Physician VICHY CELESTINS

NASSAU BOULEVARD, LONG ISLAND SEPTEMBER 23D TO OCTOBER 1ST. INC Daily at 3:00 P. M.

Special trains direct to Nassau Boulevard will leave Pennsylvania Station, N. Y. (entrance on 34th St. and on 33d St., near 7th Ave.), and Flatbush Ave., Brooklyn (the terminus of the N. Y. Subway), at intervals between 1:30 and 3:30 P. M.

P. M. Regular trains leave Pennsylvania Station, N. Y., 7:55, 932, 11:00 A. M., (12:30, Sat. only, 2:00, 3:04, 3:34, 4:18 P. M., Sundays, 9:05, 10:00 11:16 A. M., 1:36, 8:00 P. M., corresponding trains leave Brooklyn three minutes earlier. Special trains returning after the meeting is the story of California's woman suffrage campaign, just about to end, in which women of all classes have worked shoulder to shoulder to put the Golden State in the white list of suffrage States-a really remarkable woman's battle. Also there's the tale of a seafarer who goes back in the long ago and gives his impressions realistically of his first trip around the Horn in a square rigger. It has the sen tang.

ARPET CLEANSING Largest in the World. 1

THE THOS. J. STEWART CO. B'way cor. 46th St., N.Y. Phone 3896 Bryant Eric cor. 5th St., Jersey City. Phone 155 STORAGE WAREHOUSE AND MOVING VANS

IN TO-MORROW'S SUNDAY SUN

A London Club for Ghosts

Right on Piccadilly Circus is this new hangout of London's ghost hunters. It tells how psychic mysteries are investigated there amid material comforts by such women as Mrs. Besant and Lady Warwick. How money can be made is described in another interesting article, revealing how city backyards can be turned into profitable aquariums owing to the present demand for these fancy fish. There is more money in it, you learn, than in poultry raising.

Raising Fancy Gold Fish

The Doughnuts Capture New York

They have marched here from New England and their conquest is complete, say the bakers, though once New York scorned them. Of course styles in doughnuts have changed from these original New England invaders and there are some here described in a way to make your mouth water.

High House Josh Goes to Sea

It was all because of an artist's fancy for it that one of Long Island's historic farm houses recently went sailing in a scow and now finds itself the home of the artist twenty miles away. The description of the house shows why the artist wanted it so much and the way it was moved is novel. THE SUNDAY SUN reader may also read of that quaint ceremony of

Blessing the Cattle in Brittany It tells of a picturesque custom that has survived in a little out of the way town in this land of legend, where the peasants lead their cows to the church and under the statue of the saint invoke a blessing on their beasts. For she who is interested in autumn gowns and hats there

The Woman's Page telling of coming blouses to be seen and about the craze for embroidered frocks, and there is interesting gossip from women's widening world.

Another article tells of Unhappy Stationary Cops

They have to steal naps standing up instead of in the janitor's, these guardians of four corners, and gone is the chance for the friendly nip that once they enjoyed. But it's a public benefit, just the same, says the police captain, who tells of their woes. The Day of the Empire Nose is here and a nose maker tells how they change styles in noses with the seasons now and how noses must have sharp tips to-day to go with big hats. For the sportsman is filled with stories of the woods soon to hear the crack of the rifle. There is the story too of how Barnabas Quigley, losing his job, went back to stud poker. The traveller and his wife, standing on the Pincian Hill, talk of

The Husting Page

Bahnhoff and Sky Line

to show differences in tastes of globe trotters, and there are new points in auction explained, there are items from the old world's budget of news, book reviews and notes of the politicians among other features

IN TO-MORROW'S SUNDAY SUN